

MEMORANDUM

TO: State Board of Education

FROM: Denise Cox, Interim Director
Office of Adult Education

DATE: March 31, 2010

SUBJECT: Approval of Allocations for Adult Education
Summer/Fall Term 2010

Under the provisions of 511 IAC 11-3-6, the State Board of Education shall provide each participating school corporation with an estimated amount of reimbursement it can expect to receive for the funding period. Upon approval by the State Board, the Office of Adult Education will notify each participating school corporation of its approved state allocation level for Summer/Fall Term 2010 (July 1, 2010 – January 31, 2010).

The estimated amount available for Spring Term 2010 is $7,853,198.98. The recommended adult education program allocations are based upon:

- (1) The anticipated 2011 state appropriation for adult education,
- (2) Pre-established base amounts for participating school corporations, and
- (3) Enrollments for the previous year.

From the allocations local school corporations may reimburse adult education teacher salaries. A maximum of 15 percent of the allocation may be used for administrative and support costs. Approximately one percent of the total appropriation is set aside each term for correcting errors and meeting unanticipated short-term needs.

The Office of Adult Education requests that the State Board of Education approve the proposed state allocations for Summer/Fall Term 2010.

Thank you.
